The March 18 breakfast is hosted jointly by City of Banyule and Hume City Council and features:

- “How People can be the key to Business Sustainability”
Guest Speaker, Gary Langenwalter, Managing Partner, Sustainability Partners International
- NBAA Nominees
City of Banyule Nominees
Dolphin Products, Natalie Rallis
Westaflex, Peter Collins

Hume City Council Nominees
CME EcoCycle, Mick Jumpertz
Kelly & Windsor, Trevor Beuth
- Young Business Achievers
City of Banyule Recipient – Tim Martin, Trent Refrigeration
Hume City Council Recipient – Ashour Denkha, Toll in2store
- Master of Ceremonies, Robin Williams, Director of Alumni and Development, RMIT University

These Awards have been created by NORTH Link with funding from the Victorian Government Department of Innovation, Industry and Regional Development and the support and participation of the Cities of Banyule, Darebin, Hume, Moreland, Whittlesea, Yarra and the Shire of Nillumbik.

Please see attached brochure for full details and how to register or visit www.nbaa.com.au
A Registration Form is also included on reverse side of this letter.

I warmly encourage you to join us for business insights from world renowned author and sustainability champion Gary Langenwalter.

I suggest you book early as previous breakfasts sold out a week prior to the RSVP date.

Yours sincerely,
