“Australia has a great future”

Harold Mitchell is Executive Chairman of Aegis Media Pacific. In 1976 he started the company that is now the largest media agency in Australia. Australia's largest planner and buyer of media including internet advertising through emitch, and owner of Stadia Media, Australia's largest sports ground advertising contractor.

Chairman of CARE Australia, Director CARE International, Chairman of the Melbourne Symphony Orchestra, Chairman of ThoroughVision, Vice Chairman of Tennis Australia, Chairman of Art Exhibitions Australia, Chairman Television Sydney, Director Deakin Foundation, Chairman of Melbourne Rebels Rugby Union, Director St James Ethics Foundation, Director Grattan Institute, Former President of the Museums Board of Victoria, Former Chairman National Gallery Australia, Former Board Member of Opera Australia Council and Former President of the Melbourne International Festival of Arts.

In December 2000 he launched the Harold Mitchell Foundation. This is a philanthropic foundation to distribute funds between Health and the Arts. In December 2002 Deakin University conferred on him an honorary degree of Doctor of Laws. In 2003 he delivered the Andrew Olle Memorial Lecture on Media.

In January 2004 he was awarded the Officer of the Order of Australia for his services as a benefactor and fundraiser in support of artistic and cultural endeavour.

On 28 July 2005, he was awarded the Richard Pratt Business Leader Award given by the Australian Business Arts Foundation in recognition of excellence in arts leadership.

On 14 June 2010, he was awarded the Companion of the Order of Australia for eminent service to the community through leadership and philanthropic endeavours in the fields of art, health and education and as a supporter of humanitarian aid in Timor-Leste and indigenous communities.

Northern Business Achievement Awards

The Northern Business Achievement Awards (NBAA) acknowledge and celebrate the successes and achievements of small to medium sized enterprises in Melbourne's north.

The NBAA was established by NORTH Link with funding from the Victorian Government and the support of the Cities of Banyule, Darebin, Hume, Moreland, Whittlesea, Yarra and the Shire of Nillumbik. The Awards align with NORTH Link's aims for economic development, marketing and promotion of Melbourne's north, by recognising local business achievement, encouraging innovation and excellence and providing valuable networks and opportunities for enterprise growth and development.

Young Business Achievers Awards

Moreland City Council

Anna Campbell, Anna Campbell Design

Melbourne designer Anna Campbell has created a name for herself through beautifully crafted designs, encapsulating an elegant, vintage feel.

Inspired by her grandmother's impeccable style and her own love for soft, feminine designs, Anna started her own company in 2007 selling fascinators to local boutiques. Due to popular demand, the highly anticipated Anna Campbell Boutique was opened in Brunswick.

Nillumbik Shire Council

Shasta Blackmore,

Diamond Creek Community Centre (YMCA)

Shasta constantly seeks new opportunities by approaching the management team and presenting new ideas and programs. By having a thorough understanding of the children's services regulations Shasta has devised new programs and initiatives by implementing the new Victorian Early Years Learning and Development Frameworks. Shasta has totally revolutionised the holiday program and crèche program so every activity is based on the children's interests and needs.

Schools Participation

We welcome the teachers and students from:

St Helena Secondary College

Diamond Valley College

ELTHAM College
